JULIA H. HIGGINS, Examiner, State Auditor of Kentucky, has been appointed to audit the books of the State Auditor. Telephone 324. 7:15 a.m.

We want our readers to be sure to read Phil Willing's advertisement in this issue. He is making a special run on the West.

The Cecilia Club will hold its first meeting for the winter, this afternoon in the parlors of the Elks' Hall at half past two o'clock.

The First Presbyterian Church will meet this evening in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church. A meeting is desired.

The last rain for many a day fell here yesterday. Weather was not so bad as to keep a club house, and was accompanied by considerable wind.

Mr. N. B. Deatherage has improved the lower part of his yard on Second street by removing a small office building and putting in a walk.

Mr. Lee Marpin has opened up a first-class millinery establishment in the store room recently occupied by Mr. Lee Marpin. The store is well filled line of ready-to-wear fall, hats, and accompanied by considerable wind.

Miss Alice Turley's home on the "Sun-mist" and will take possession of same as soon as Mr. Turley moves to his handsome home on the Campus. Mr. James J. Irvin, of the First Presbyterian Church, and has numerous friends here who are pleased to know that she will remain.

The most beautiful manly pair and plowshare to "At City Corner," the new comedy drama in which the famous little comedy star, Eddie Foy, is appearing. The play opens Tuesday night. The critic of the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal was stirred by writing to the following point:

"April showers and April sunshines, they always bring through 'At City Corner' the most complete success of merriment.

When the heroine at this charming play is beautiful, we sympathize. When she is ugly, we sympathize. But when she enters into the conjugation for 'love'—we love her."

FLOUR

Where are you going my pretty maid?

To purchase flour, kind sir, she said.

What kind of flour, my pretty maid?

Why, Elliston Patent, of course, kind sir, she said.

Then I'll go with you, my pretty maid.

You'll never repeat it, sir, she said.

And he never repeated in all his life.

For he took Elliston Patent flour home to his wife.
